MOHAWK COUNCIL OF AKWESASNE

OFFICE OF THE GRAND CHIEF

She:kon/Greetings,

On behalf of the Mohawk Council of Akwesasne and the Department of Economic Development, we are pleased to support the latest edition of the Akwesasne Business Directory.

This directory contains a wealth of resources for visitors to our wonderful community. We couldn't be more proud of our businesses that are at the forefront of our thriving economy.

The directory can also benefit our own community members who can easily browse through to learn what services and goods are available right within their own territory. Others may be inspired by the endeavors of their peers and embark on a business venture of their own. We encourage and support that economic spirit.

The Departments of Economic Development at both the Mohawk Council of Akwesasne and the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe have collaborated to bring you this valuable resource. We thank them and all others involved.

Sken:nen/In Peace,

Grand Chief Mike Kanentakeron Mitchell

Shé:kon (Greetings),

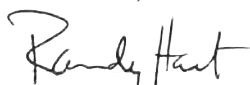

Welcome to Akwesasne – “Land where the Partridge Drums.” We are happy to host your visit here and Akwesasne has much to offer. The local economy is diverse and vibrant. Visitors can enjoy the Akwesasne Mohawk Casino, the Mohawk Bingo Palace, our annual international pow-wow, the Akwesasne Museum and Library, retail shopping, many outdoor activities, discount gasoline, discount tobacco products, hotel lodging, auto repair, professional services and fine arts and crafts. This year the Akwesasne Mohawk Casino and the Mohawk Bingo Palace will merge into one property. The entrepreneurial spirit is strong here in Akwesasne!

This business directory is now in its sixth year of publication. We thank the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe’s Public Information Office and Economic Development Division for their fine efforts in keeping the directory updated and distributed. It is a collaborative effort between the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe and the Mohawk Council of Akwesasne. Our Mohawk community maintains strong ties of history, culture, language and kinship. We are one community and the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe supports traditional Mohawk values, language and culture.

Akwesasne supports, promotes and contributes to local economies by providing employment and other business opportunities to both Mohawks and our neighbors from surrounding communities. The private sector has over 300 registered businesses. Tribal government employs about 1,500 in its programs, services and enterprises.

Nia:wen (thank you) for taking the time to pick up this directory and read our message. We are sure that you will find the directory very useful during your visit with us. We distribute it annually throughout the North Country in cooperation with our partners in the St. Lawrence County, Malone and Massena Chambers of Commerce. Nia:wen for visiting our community and enjoy your time here!

Nia:wen,

Randy Hart
